

To all...Terry is correct...the following was taken from his post sent out in October 2016..please save for future reference!!!

Happy New Year!!

William Morat

They are for household articles that can't be put in our regular dumpsters. Old counter tops, old doors, screen doors, furniture that is broken apart...No mattresses, No cleaning out rental property....strictly for residents use only.

Yard debri...if you stack your branches, not logs, close to the street, the maintence staff will grind them up and shoot the mulch back on your property....the week after the POA meeting. I hope this helps.
